

Sabaragamuwa University of Sri Lanka – Introduction

We are immensely proud of your decision to spend four years pursuing your degree programme in a very free and peaceful environment, while living within our university premises, which is blessed with natural beauty among the university system of Sri Lanka.

The Sabaragamuwa University of Sri Lanka is located in an area surrounded by many natural resources, including the beautiful World's End, Samanalawewa, Udawalawe and other scenic destinations.

The university premises are located approximately 161 km from Colombo, in Mahawawathenna, a beautiful village in Belihuloya, within the Muttetuwegama Grama Niladhari Division of the Balangoda Divisional Secretariat Division in the Ratnapura District of the Sabaragamuwa Province.

Using several abandoned buildings that had previously been used under the Samanalawewa Project, Sabaragamuwa University was established on 17 September 1991 as an affiliated university of the University of Sri Jayewardenepura. At that time, there were only two faculties: the Faculty of Business Studies and the Faculty of Social Sciences.

Later, on 5 November 1995, a Gazette notification was issued to incorporate Sabaragamuwa University into the national university system as a national university. Accordingly, on 2 February 1996, Sabaragamuwa University was officially incorporated into the national university system as a national university.
